Dear friend,

June 12th - What does that day mean to you? For most people, it's not too significant, but for the family of Kelsey Davis it means "Angel Day".

Kelsey has an Angel Day because 12 short, long years ago, after a two-year fight with cancer, she went to be with our Lord and Savior. Kelsey was 23 years old at the time with so much life yet to live. We often wonder how our lives would be if she was still here. Would she have kids? Where would she live? How many horses and Corgi dogs would she have? While these are things we don't know, we do know that we will never forget her or our memories of her.

On Kelsey's Angel Day we call our Mom, Kelsey's Mom, and tell her we love her and to smile. Chezie, Kelsey's twin, sends out a family text with a YouTube video of the song "I Raise a Hallelujah". Kelsey's parents, brother and sisters all miss her very much, but we know she is in Heaven singing louder and louder.

Kelsey is the reason her family and friends produce the Live Life to the Fullest Barrel Race. Not only as a remembrance of Kelsey's love for the sport of barrel racing, but also as a way to help others, like Kelsey, with the Kelsey Mae Davis Memorial Scholarship. Your gift is the foundation upon which we are able to further Kelsey's legacy. Together we continue to honor and remember Kelsey Mae Davis' last words written to us June 12, 2006 - "Be Bold and Live Life to the Fullest!"

Sincerely,
